

Name: _____

Honor in Diversity

Directions: Each group strengthened the military and Homefront during WWII in many different ways. Can you match the following statements to the correct group?

- _____ 1. This group translated Japanese documents in the Philippines.
- _____ 2. These group members trained in Alabama.
- _____ 3. This became a symbol for women in the workforce during World War II.
- _____ 4. This secret way to talk was used by this group and it was never cracked by the enemy.
- _____ 5. This group flew combat missions over Europe and in North Africa.
- _____ 6. Included the famous slogan, "We Can Do It."
- _____ 7. The 442nd unit became the most decorated active American unit in World War II.
- _____ 8. Six members of this group sent and received more than 800 messages with no mistakes in the battle of Iwo Jima.
- _____ 9. Due to the red marks on their planes, this group earned the nickname: "Redtails."
- _____ 10. Daniel Inouye was a member of this group and later served as a Senator from Hawaii.

Word Bank:

(words may be used more than once)

Nisei Regiments
Rosie the Riveter
Tuskegee Airmen
Navajo Code Talkers

Answer Key (Students may work independently or with partners to look up facts about the different groups. Links have been attached on the last page.)

Honor in Diversity

Directions: Each group strengthened the military and Homefront during WWII in many different ways. Can you match the following statements to the correct group?

- Nisei Regiments 1. This group translated Japanese documents in the Philippines.
- Tuskegee Airmen 2. These group members trained in Alabama.
- Rosie the Riveter 3. This became a symbol for women in the workforce during World War II.
- Navajo Code Talkers 4. This secret way to talk was used by this group and it was never cracked by the enemy.
- Tuskegee Airmen 5. This group flew combat missions over Europe and in North Africa.
- Rosie the Riveter 6. Included the famous slogan, "We Can Do It."
- Nisei Regiments 7. The 442nd unit became the most decorated active American unit in World War II.
- Navajo Code Talkers 8. Six members of this group sent and received more than 800 messages with no mistakes in the battle of Iwo Jima
- Tuskegee Airmen 9. Due to the red marks on their planes, this group earned the nickname: "Redtails."
- Nisei Regiments 10. Daniel Inouye was a member of this group and later served as a Senator from Hawaii.

Word Bank:
(words may be used more than once)

Nisei Regiments
Rosie the Riveter
Tuskegee Airmen
Navajo Code Talkers

Helpful links (Print the pages out or have students look up the links online):

The American Nisei Regiments \(studentsofhistory.com\)

Rosie the Riveter - Students | Britannica Kids | Homework Help

Tuskegee Airmen Facts \(softschools.com\)

Navajo code talkers - Kids | Britannica Kids | Homework Help