PRESS RELEASE

Battleship Memorial Park to Host 1940s Radio Show

Mobile, Alabama, May 5, 2017 – In celebration of the USS ALABAMA's 75th anniversary, Battleship Memorial Park will hold "On The Air: A Tribute to Bob Hope and Radio Stars of the 1940s" on Saturday, May 20, 6:00 p.m. in the Aircraft Pavilion. Tickets to the event are $10 and can be purchased online at <http://www.brownpapertickets.com/event/2947749> or in the gift shop at Battleship Memorial Park.

"On the Air" is a theatrical production that features musicians and comedians Lynn Roberts and Chuck Carson. These two bring to life the beloved radio shows of the 1940s. You'll meet Bob Hope, Red Skelton, Jimmy Durante, and everyone's favorite, Jack Benny, during the performance. This nostalgic stage show includes impersonations, music and comedy of our war years.

This is the first in a series of events that will commemorate the 75th anniversary of the USS ALABAMA. Proceeds from ticket sales benefit Battleship Memorial Park.
